SHRI CHANDRIKA PRASAD TRIPATHI :

SHRI BEKAL UTSAHI :

DR. RATNAKAR PANDEY :

Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state :

(a) what are the profits to be generated by the Coca Cola Company in the first five years of operation and what will be the dividends for the same period;

(b) what will be the retained profits and under what heads these retained profits will be used for;

(c) whether Government propose to impose any restriction on repatriation of profits by the Coca Cola Company; and

(d) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. R. DASMUNSHI): (a) and (b) According to the application of the company, the profit estimated in the first five years of operation is about Rs. 18.75 crores out of which an amount of Rs. 5.26 crores is shown as dividends to be repatriated. The Company has not indicated the mode of deployment of the retained profits. There is no restriction on the repatriation of profits by units in the Export processing Zones. However, the operations of the units are subject to the achievement of the prescribed value addition, net foreign exchange earnings and other terms and conditions specified in the approval letter.

(c) and (d) The Government have not taken a decision on the proposal of M/s. Coca Cola.

SHRI SHANKER SINH VAGHELA :

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state :

(a) the amount collected by the Agha Khan from his followers during the visit to India this year;

(b) whether any audited accounts are being maintained of all collections made by him personally or through his various Jamatkhanas; and

(c) whether all or part of these collections are treated as his personal income ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI AJIT PANJA) : (a) to (c) As the return of income for the assesment year 1989-90 has so far not been furnished by the Agha Khan, the Income-tax Department does not have any information regarding the amount said to have been collected by him during his visit to India this year or other issues related thereto.

Promotion in the office of the Development Commissioner (Handicrafts)

1968. SHRI T. R. BALU : Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that an official in the office of the Development Commissioner (Handicrafts) was given benefit of promotion at two different posts, once as Office Superintendent and the other as Assistant Director (A&C) on the basis of seniority in two different cadres; if so, whether this is permissible under the Rules;

(b) whether this official was placed last in the select list prepared by the D.P.C. in 1980 and was subsequently placed at the top position by a decision (presently sub-judice) of another D.P.C. in 1985 for the same post of Assistant Director (A&C);

(c) whether on the basis of this favoured seniority he has further been promoted as Deputy Director (A&C); and

(d) if so, what are the reasons therefor and what corrective action has been taken or proposed to be taken by Government for fair selection ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (KUM. SAROJ KHAPARDE): (a) Yes, Sir. The official concerned was Accountant, eligible for promotion as Office Superintendent in the Regional Office. In 1974 he was appointed Junior Field Officer, later re-designated as Carpet Training Officer in 1978. At the time of filling up the post of office Superintendent in Regional Office by promotion as per Recruitment Rules, the official concerned continued to hold substantive lien as Accountant in his previous post. Since he had neither been declared permanent in any other higher post nor a permanent CTO, he had to be considered and promoted as office Superintendent w.e.f. 2.6.80. Subsequently, he was appointed Asstt. Director (Administration and Co-ordination) on ad-hoc basis w.e.f. 4-10-82 and subsequently, regularised against that post from 14-8-1985 on the basis of DPC recommendation held in 1985.

(b) Yes, Sir. The matter is, however, sub-judice.

(c) The Post of Deputy Director (Admn. and Coordination) Field Administrative Cell, Varanasi was filled up on ad-hoc promotion of the senior most Assistant Director (Administration and Co-ordination).

(d) Necessary action has been initiated for filling up the post of Deputy Director (A&C) Field Administrative Cell, Varanasi on regular basis as per the existing recruitment rules.
